

Schedule 1 Description of Offenses

Amendment to the Fugitive Offenders Ordinance

1. Murder or manslaughter, including criminal negligence causing death; culpable homicide; assault with intent to commit murder.
2. Aiding, abetting, counseling, or procuring suicide.
3. Maliciously wounding; maiming; inflicting grievous or actual bodily harm; assault occasioning actual bodily harm; threats to kill; intentional or reckless endangering of life whether by means of a weapon, a dangerous substance or otherwise; offenses relating to unlawful wounding or injuring.
4. Offenses of a sexual nature including rape; sexual assault; indecent assault; unlawful sexual acts on children; statutory sexual offenses.
5. Gross indecency with a child, a mental defective, or an unconscious person.
6. Kidnapping; abduction; false imprisonment; unlawful confinement; dealing or trafficking in slaves or other persons; taking a hostage.
7. Offenses against the law relating to dangerous drugs including narcotics, psychotropic substances, precursors and essential chemicals used in the illegal manufacture of narcotics and psychotropic substances; offenses relating to the proceeds of drug trafficking.
8. Obtaining property or pecuniary advantage by deception; theft; robbery; burglary (including breaking and entering); embezzlement; blackmail; extortion; unlawful handling or receiving of property; false accounting; any other offense in respect of property or fiscal matters involving fraud; any offense against the law relating to unlawful deprivation of property.
9. Offenses relating to counterfeiting; offenses against the law relating to forgery or uttering what is forged.

10. Offenses against the law relating to bribery, corruption, secret commissions, and breach of trust.

11. Perjury and subornation of perjury.

12. Offenses relating to the perversion or obstruction of the course of justice.

13. Arson; criminal damage or mischief including mischief in relation to computer data.

14. Offenses against the law relating to firearms.

15. Offenses against the law relating to explosives.

16. Mutiny or any mutinous act committed on board a vessel at sea.

17. Piracy involving ships or aircraft.

18. Unlawful seizure or exercise of control of an aircraft or other means of transportation.

19. Genocide or direct and public incitement to commit genocide.

20. Facilitating or permitting the escape of a person from custody.

21. Smuggling; offenses against the law relating to import and export of prohibited items, including historical and archaeological items.

22. Immigration offenses including fraudulent acquisition or use of a passport or visa.

23. Arranging or facilitating for financial gain, the illegal entry of persons into a jurisdiction

24. Offenses relating to gambling or lotteries.
25. Offenses relating to the unlawful termination of pregnancy.
26. Stealing, abandoning, exposing or unlawfully detaining a child; any other offenses involving the exploitation of children.
27. Offenses against the law relating to prostitution and premises kept for the purposes of prostitution.
28. Offenses relating to unlawful escape from custody; mutiny in prison.
29. Bigamy.
30. Offenses relating to women and girls.
31. Offenses relating to the possession or laundering of proceeds obtained from the commission of any offense described in this Schedule.
32. Impeding the arrest or prosecution of a person who has or is believed to have committed an offense described in this Schedule.
33. Offenses for which persons may be surrendered under multilateral international conventions; offenses created as a result of decisions of international organizations.
34. Conspiracy to commit fraud or to defraud.
35. Conspiracy to commit, or any type of association to commit, any offense described in this Schedule.
36. Aiding, abetting, counseling, or procuring the commission of, inciting, being an accessory before or after the fact to, or attempting to commit an offense described in this Schedule.